Living Pawsitively 39 Route 15, Lafayette

It seems like everyone is looking for healthy, all natural foods to feed their families and loved ones. However, what about our four-legged family members; they need good nutrition as well. Now you can find everything you need for a healthy pet at Living Pawsitively right here in Lafayette.

Owner Jan Hopper has always had a passion for pets and pet health and six years ago open Living Pawsitively. She is educated in animal nutrition and has a vast knowledge of the subject. She can help you find the right all natural food for your pet. Living Pawsitively carries raw meat bones, raw goat's milk and a variety of minimally cooked foods as well.

Stop by Living Pawsitively, check out their large variety of all natural, holistic dog, and cat foods. All of the consumables they carry are either from New Zealand or crafted right here in the USA. Nothing is from China.

Living Pawsitively also carries pet supplies such as shampoos, collars, dishes, toys, natural flea and tick product and supplements just to mention a few. The snack bar is filled with grain-free, natural and organic treats that are sure to please even the meticulous of pets.

The store is dog friendly and even has a run out back for dogs to enjoy playing in. Living Pawsitively holds various events throughout the year such as pet adoption days. They are hosting a Pet Wellness Day on Sunday, June 10 so bring your pet and learn about healthy alternatives for your best friend.
